INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

A RIGHT "FOURTH"

A WRONG "FOURTH"

IN order to aid cities that are undertaking to plan Independence Day Celebrations in a way that will make the occasion significant and attractive and eliminate the objectionable features of the old form of celebration, the Department of Child Hygiene of the Russell Sage Foundation has prepared matter which may be had upon application. This printed matter gives details concerning plans of organization and demonstration, and programs that have been tried with success. A nominal charge of five cents each, or $2.50 per hundred for pamphlets is made to cover cost of printing and shipping.

Attention is also called to an article in the May, 1911, number of "The World's Work," which gives a detailed description of a celebration in one of the leading cities of the country. It not only tells what was done, but how it was done, what committees were appointed, etc.

Lantern slides with printed descriptions will be loaned for use at public meetings. No charge is made for these. The borrower pays express charges.

The following is some of the material available :
