Research and Original Creative Work

2014 was a very successful year for me, with 21 publications, including a book, articles in top journals (Journal of Personality and Social Psychology; Psychological Science; Advances in Experimental Social Psychology; Personality and Social Psychology Review. Grants continued and several new applications went out. I gave many talks. I'm not sure how much of all this will show up in this form.

Service

This year i served as head of the social psychology graduate program up until August, when i left on leave, with Dr. Plant taking over in my absence. This was my main departmental service. In terms of the broader field, i served on a major grant review panel for a Templeton prospection grants project, reviewed about 30-40 manuscripts, served as editor for a journal special issue, organized and supervised a conference in Europe. Also gave many talks and worked with various students and colleagues, not just here in the USA but also Europe, Australia, and Asia.
