

Contents |

	Contributors	vii
Chapter 1	Coping with Crisis: An Introduction Nancy Bermeo and Jonas Pontusson	1
PART I	INTERNATIONAL ORIGINS, ORGANIZATIONS, AND CONSTRAINTS	33
Chapter 2	Modern Capitalism and the Advanced Nation State: Understanding the Causes of the Crisis Torben Iversen and David Soskice	35
Chapter 3	Multilateralism Reborn? International Cooperation and the Global Financial Crisis Eric Helleiner	65
Chapter 4	European Fiscal Responses to the Great Recession David R. Cameron	91
Chapter 5	Policymaking in Hard Times: French and German Responses to the Eurozone Crisis Waltraud Schelkle	130
Chapter 6	The Sorrows of Young Euro: The Sovereign Debt Crises of Ireland and Southern Europe Klaus Armingeon and Lucio Baccaro	162

PART II	CASES AND COMPARISONS	199
Chapter 7	The Politics of the Pop: The U.S. Response to the Financial Crisis and the Great Recession Nolan McCarty	201
Chapter 8	Politics and Policies in Two Economic Crises: The Nordic Countries Johannes Lindvall	233
Chapter 9	The Global Economic Crisis and the Politics of Regime Change in Japan Yves Tiberghien	261
Chapter 10	The Liberal Model in (the) Crisis: Continuity and Change in Great Britain and Ireland Lucy Barnes and Anne Wren	287
PART III	CROSS-NATIONAL CONSEQUENCES	325
Chapter 11	Crisis as Political Opportunity? Partisan Politics, Housing Cycles, and the Credit Crisis Ben W. Ansell	327
Chapter 12	West European Welfare States in Times of Crisis David Rueda	361
	Index	399