

Contents

	About the Authors	vii
	Introduction Jean Reith Schroedel and Steven Brint	1
PART I	CHRISTIAN CONSERVATIVES AND PARTISAN POLITICS	23
Chapter 1	A Global Perspective: U.S. Exceptionalism (Again?) Pippa Norris	25
Chapter 2	Interests, Values, and Party Identification between 1972 and 2006 Michael Hout and Andrew Greeley	57
Chapter 3	Voting Your Values Wayne E. Baker and Connie J. Boudens	83
Chapter 4	Moral-Values Politics: The Emergence of an Electoral System Steven Brint and Seth Abrutyn	105
PART II	DISCOURSES OF MOBILIZATION AND PUBLIC REASON	141
Chapter 5	Politicized Evangelicalism and Secular Elites: Creating a Moral Other Rhys H. Williams	143

Chapter 6	Mobilizing Evangelicals: Christian Reconstructionism and the Roots of the Religious Right Julie Ingersoll	179
Chapter 7	The Christian Right, Public Reason, and American Democracy Nathaniel Klemp and Stephen Macedo	209
PART III	CYCLES AND THE EVOLUTION OF A MOVEMENT	247
Chapter 8	The Decline, Transformation, and Revival of the Christian Right in the United States Peter Dobkin Hall	249
Chapter 9	Moral Values and Political Parties: Cycles of Conflict and Accommodation Kimberly H. Conger	280
Chapter 10	Politics as the Construction of Relations: Religious Identity and Political Expression D. Michael Lindsay	305
Chapter 11	Of Movements and Metaphors: The Coevolution of the Christian Right and the GOP Clyde Wilcox	331
	Index	357