

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

Figure 2.1	Chicago High School Students' Perceptions of Insecurity, by Race, 2001	35
Figure 2.2	Chicago High School Students' Perceptions of Insecurity, by School Racial Composition, 2001	36
Figure 2.3	Chicago High School Students' Perceptions of Gang Population, by School Type, 2001	37
Figure 3.1	Racial and Social Isolation and Resources and Opportunity at the Four Chicago High Schools	60
Figure 3.2	Students' Perceptions of Social Injustice, by Race, 2001	67
Figure 4.1	Percentage of Contact with Police for Chicago Ninth- and Tenth-Graders, by Race and Level of Severity, 2001	87
Figure 4.2	Chicago High School Students' Contacts with Police, by Race and Level of Severity, 2005	88
Map 2.1	The Concentration of Poverty in Chicago by Community Area	30
Map 2.2	Perceptions of Safety Among Surveyed Chicago Youth	32
Map 4.1	Chicago High School Students' Perceptions of Criminal Injustice, by Race, Gender, Class, Age, and Neighborhood Area	101
Map 4.2	Chicago High School Students' Contact with Police, by Neighborhood	103

Photo 2.1	Police Outside Fenger Academy High School, Chicago, in 2009	20
Photo 2.2	“Love RIP”: Agape Community Center, 342 West 111th Street, Chicago, the Site of Derrion Albert’s Fatal Beating in 2009	21
Photo 2.3	Looking from the East Toward Agape Community Center, Across the Unofficial “Safe” Zone for Students Traveling Home to Altgeld Gardens from Fenger Academy High School	22
Photo 4.1	Main Entrance to Tilden Career Community Academy, Chicago	81
Photo 4.2	Main Entrance to Harper High School, Chicago	82
Table 1.1	Characteristics of Four Chicago Schools, 2006	13
Table 2.1	Racial Demographic Data on Pre-K Through Twelfth-Grade Students in the Largest U.S. Public School Districts, 1987–2009	25
Table 2.2	Racial Demographic Data for Chicago Schools, Pre-K Through Twelfth Grade, While Under the Desegregation Consent Decree, 1987–2009	27
Table 2.3	Distance Traveled by Chicago High School Students Between Home and School, by School Racial Composition	38
Table 4.1	Chicago Ninth- and Tenth-Graders’ Contacts with Police, by Race and Level of Severity, 2001	87
Table 4.2	Chicago High School Students’ Racialized Perceptions of Criminal Injustice, by Level of Police Contact	105