

Contents

	Contributors	xi
	Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	Immigration, Race, and Ethnicity in the United States: Social Constructions and Social Relations in Historical and Contemporary Perspective Nancy Foner and George M. Fredrickson	1
PART I	HISTORICAL AND THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES ON RACE AND ETHNICITY
Chapter 1	Conceptual Confusions and Divides: Race, Ethnicity, and the Study of Immigration Stephen Cornell and Douglas Hartmann	23
Chapter 2	Ethnicity: An American Genealogy Victoria Hattam	42
Chapter 3	The Amplitude of Ethnic History: An American Story John Higham	61
Chapter 4	The Great Migration, African Americans, and Immigrants in the Industrial City Joe W. Trotter	82
Chapter 5	Immigration and the Social Construction of Otherness: “Underclass” Stigma and Intergroup Relations Gerald Jaynes	100
PART II	IMMIGRATION, RACE, AND THE STATE
Chapter 6	American Gatekeeping: Race and Immigration Law in the Twentieth Century Erika Lee	119
Chapter 7	The Census Counts, the Census Classifies Kenneth Prewitt	145

x Contents

PART III	PANETHNICITY
Chapter 8	Making New Immigrants “Inbetween”: Irish Hosts and White Panethnicity, 1890 to 1930 David Roediger and James Barrett	167
Chapter 9	The Formation of Latino and Latina Panethnic Identities José Itzigsohn	197
Chapter 10	Asian American Panethnicity: Contemporary National and Transnational Possibilities Yen Le Espiritu	217
PART IV	SOCIOECONOMIC PROFILES AND TRENDS
Chapter 11	Old and New Landscapes of Diversity: The Residential Patterns of Immigrant Minorities Richard Alba and Nancy Denton	237
Chapter 12	Intermarriage Then and Now: Race, Generation, and the Changing Meaning of Marriage Joel Perlmann and Mary C. Waters	262
Chapter 13	Race, Assimilation, and “Second Generations,” Past and Present Philip Kasinitz	278
PART V	INTERGROUP RELATIONS
Chapter 14	The Black-Asian Conflict? John Lie	301
Chapter 15	Immigrant Entrepreneurs and Customers Throughout the Twentieth Century Steven J. Gold	315
Chapter 16	Straddling the Color Line: The Legal Construction of Hispanic Identity in Texas Neil Foley	341
Chapter 17	Black and Brown in Compton: Demographic Change, Suburban Decline, and Intergroup Relations in a South Central Los Angeles Community, 1950 to 2000 Albert M. Camarillo	358
	Index	377