

— Contents —

About the Authors	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Chapter 1	Introduction: The Conflicts Between Earning and Caring	1
Chapter 2	The Changing American Family and the Problem of Private Solutions	24
Chapter 3	The United States in Cross-National Perspective: Are Parents and Children Doing Better Elsewhere?	58
Chapter 4	Reconciling the Conflicts: Toward a Dual-Earner—Dual-Carer Society	84
Chapter 5	Ensuring Time to Care During the Early Years: Family Leave Policy	112
Chapter 6	Strengthening Reduced-Hour Work: Regulation of Working Time	147
Chapter 7	Providing Public Care: Child Care, Preschool, and Public Schooling	185
Chapter 8	Does Policy Matter? Linking Policies to Outcomes	236
Chapter 9	Developing Earner-Carer Policies in the United States	268
Appendix A	Description of Cross-National Data Sets Used	305
Appendix B	Summary of Selected European Union Directives	309
Appendix C	Construction of Policy Indexes	315
Notes		321
References		351
Index		381