

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

- The Hidden Struggle: Reform Politics, Institutional
Change, and the Circulation of Elites, 1968–1972 3

PART I

The Politics of Recommendation

CHAPTER 1

- The Idea of a Reform Commission: The McCarthy
Campaign and the “Mandate” 13

CHAPTER 2

- A Politics of Party Reform: The Humphrey Campaign
and the Party Structure Commission 41

CHAPTER 3

- An Institutionalized Bias for Reform Politics: A
Statement of Purpose and an Executive Committee 77

CHAPTER 4

- The Definition of Party Reform: The Staff in Commission Politics 101

CHAPTER 5

- The Internal Debate on Party Reform: The
Commissioners in Commission Politics 133

CHAPTER 6

The Content of the Mandate: A Final Meeting and a Reform Text

161

CHAPTER 7

The Meaning of the Mandate: Formal Rules and Practical Effects

194

CHAPTER 8

The Promulgation of Party Reform: Compliance Letters and a Published Report

214

PART II

The Politics of Implementation

CHAPTER 9

The Mandate at the National Level: The National Chairman and the Commission Report

241

CHAPTER 10

The Mandate at the State Level: The State Parties and the Commission Report

269

CHAPTER 11

Reform as an Ideology: The Elections of 1970 and the Functions of the Mandate

295

CHAPTER 12

The Politics of Implementation Writ Small: Pennsylvania Accepts Reform

320

CHAPTER 13

The Battle for Official Status: The Preliminary Call and the Fate of the Guidelines

341

CONTENTS

CHAPTER 14

- Climax on the National Level: The National Committee and the Triumph of the Guidelines 367

CHAPTER 15

- The Debate over Implementation: State Compliance
Politics and National Press Analysis 396

CHAPTER 16

- The National Party Revisited: The Final Call and the Triumph of the Guidelines—Again 428

CHAPTER 17

- The Re-creation of Reform: The Women's Caucus and Demographic Representation 460

CHAPTER 18

- The Re-creation of Reform: The Party Structure
Commission and Proportionality 492

CONCLUSION

- Politics after Reform: Institutional Change and the Circulation of Elites, 1972–1984 523

Appendices, Acknowledgments, and Notes

APPENDIX A

- Summary of the Official Guidelines of the Commission
on Party Structure and Delegate Selection 541

APPENDIX B

- Roster of Personal Interviews 546

- ACKNOWLEDGMENTS AND METHODS 551

- NOTES 555

- INDEX 605